STUART GREGOR

Winery of the Year 2005

Yalumba

Stuart Gregor has honoured Yalumba with the '2005 Winery of The Year' award in his annual wine guide, "don't buy wine without me".

"This was an almost impossibly difficult decision to make this year. In the running were McWilliam's, Tyrrell's, De Bortoli and Seppelt but I have given the gong to Yalumba for their ability to make great value wines across the board. From... casks to ...viognier and all spots in between, the winemakers at Yalumba have worked incredibly hard to lift standards across every single wine. A magnificent achievement by our oldest family-owned winery."
